

Supplementary documents for applying for a residence permit for qualified workers

Valid employment contract

if applicable, previous employment contract, if the current employment contract has been in existence for less than 24 or 48 months

Proof of contributions to the statutory pension insurance or private pension scheme in the last 24 or 48 months if applicable, proof of sufficient German proficiency (only required if you do not have a German university degree)

Proof of basic knowledge of the legal and social order and living conditions in the federal territory in the case of regulated professions, a professional license